Board Nominee Bio

Kim Pattillo Brownson

Kim Pattillo Brownson is a civil rights lawyer with litigation and advocacy experience in education and constitutional law. Kim currently oversees the day-to-day management of Advancement Project's Education team, and focuses on early education, school facilities and overcrowding, and school finance. Prior to joining the Advancement Project, Kim was an attorney at the American Civil Liberties Union of Southern California, where she focused upon ensuring that the State of California provided school children with the basic necessities of a decent education. She also worked as a litigation associate at Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom. Kim began her legal career as a law clerk to the Honorable Dolores Sloviter on the Third Circuit Court of Appeal, and the Honorable Louis H. Pollak in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. Kim holds a J.D. from Yale Law School and graduated magna cum laude from Harvard College. Prior to law school, Kim worked at the Boston Consulting Group, where she provided financial and strategic planning services to Fortune 500 companies.
