Board Nominee Bio

Mark Feuerstein

Mark Feuerstein grew up in NYC, and went to P.S. 158 on the Upper East Side through elementary school. At P.S. 158, a diverse and excellent academic school with kids from all ethnic and socio-economic backgrounds, Mark was exposed to the great benefits of public education. He went on to The Dalton School where he was president of his Freshman and Senior classes, and Captain of the Football and Wrestling teams. Mark attended Princeton University where he served on the Class of '93's steering committee, got involved in the Hillel, played for the Varsity Lightweight Football team, and where he acted and directed over 15 plays. In his senior year, Mark was awarded a Fulbright Scholarship to study acting at the London Academy of Music and Dramatic Arts. He has performed on Broadway in the Tony-Award winning Last Night of Ballyhoo. Mark has acted in such films as Practical Magic, Woman on Top, What Women Want, Defiance, and In Her Shoes, and such TV shows as The West Wing, Ally McBeal, and Once and Again. Mark currently stars on the #1 cable network, USA's #1 hit show, Royal Pains. Mark is married to Dana Klein and they have three wonderful children, Lila, Frisco, and Addie. Lila is currently enrolled in the kindergarten at LCW.
