- Heather noted that during the Board Tour at the middle school, students seemed to be incredibly engaged and well-spoken.
 - LCS Elementary School
 - Dolores noted that LCS Elementary student recently completed class plays that explore how the Cinderella story is told within different cultures across the globe, including Italy, Peru, Madagascar and New Zealand.
 - Brian noted that the Board might consider a number of fundraising tactics going forward and committed to bringing those options forward to the next Board meetingf
- 5. Finance
- Brian presented the Development Update, noting that LCS, LCW and CAO are on track or exceeding their goals.
 - Joe Meza presented the February 2011 Financials to the Board.
 - Brian noted that LCS and LCW are in strong financial positions, especially considering how state deferrals could have impacted the schools.
 - Gabi motioned to approve the February 2011 financials; Gene seconded. The financials were approved unanimously.
- 6. High School Charter
- Brian noted that the high school charter budget is not the final budget because it was created months ago as a requirement for the charter renewal process.
 - Gene motioned to approve the revised material revision to include the new “boilerplate” language from LCS; Heather seconded. The motion was unanimously approved.
- 7. Student Achievement Update
- LCW
 - Kristin presented the LCW Signature Project Ratings as of February 22nd.
 - LCS Middle School
 - Rick stated that the last 4-6 weeks of the academic year are spent on Signature Projects, which will focus on ideas of community for 6th grade and self identity for 7th grade.
 - LCS Elementary School
 - Dolores noted that she is helping LCS elementary teachers to focus on what social responsibility looks like for K-5th graders.
- 8. Diversity and Lottery Update
- Brian noted that LCS enrollment lottery forecast was very accurate but that the LCW forecast was slightly less accurate because LCW has only had one student decline an enrollment offer so far.
- 9. Facilities Update
- Brian noted that the facility consultant has already begun conducting a series of three charrettes; one for high school stakeholders including teachers and parents from both LCS and LCW, and two at LCS, one comprised of parents and a second with teachers and staff.
- 10. Public School Choice Update
- Brian noted that while there is community support for the Larchmont Schools partnering with LAUSD in PSC 3.0, the funds to participate may no longer be available.
- 11. Public Comment
