Student Freedom of Speech/Expression: Publication Policy

The Larchmont Schools Governing Board and the administration and faculty of Larchmont Charter School respect students' rights to express ideas and opinions, take stands, and support causes, whether controversial or not, through their speech, their writing, their clothing, and the printed materials they choose to post or distribute.

Student freedom of expression shall be limited only as allowed by law in order to maintain an orderly school environment and to protect the rights, health, and safety of all members of the school community. Expression shall be prohibited which is obscene, libelous, or slanderous. Also prohibited shall be material that so incites pupils as to create a clear and present danger of the commission of unlawful acts on school premises or the violation of lawful school regulations, or the substantial disruption of the orderly operation of the school.

Distribution of Circulars, Newspapers, and Other Printed Matter

Students shall be allowed to distribute circulars, leaflets, newspapers, and pictorial or other printed matter, and to circulate petitions, subject to the following specific limitations:

1. Leaflets, pictorial and other printed matter to be distributed shall be submitted to the Executive Director or designee at least one school day prior to distribution.
2. Distribution, free or for a fee, may take place at any time except during instructional time and providing there is no substantial disruption in the school programs as determined by the Executive Director or designee.
3. The manner of distribution shall be such that coercion is not used to induce students to accept the printed matter or to sign petitions.
4. The solicitation of signatures must not take place in instructional classes or school offices, nor be substantially disruptive to the school program as determined by the Executive Director or designee.
5. Pupil editors of official school publications shall be responsible for assigning and editing the news, editorial, and feature content of their publications subject to the limitations of this section. However, it shall be the responsibility of a journalism adviser or advisers of pupil publications within each school site to supervise the production of the pupil staff, to maintain professional standards of language usage and journalistic integrity, and to maintain the provisions of this section.
6. There shall be no prior restraint of material prepared for official School publications except insofar as it violates this policy. School officials shall have the burden of showing justification without undue delay prior to a limitation of pupil expression under this section.

Buttons, Badges, and Other Insignia of Symbolic Expression

Students shall be permitted to wear buttons, badges, armbands, and other insignia as a form of expression, subject to the prohibitions enumerated in this Policy.

Use of Bulletin Boards

Students may be provided with bulletin boards, upon request, for use in posting student materials on campus locations convenient to student use. Where feasible, the location and quantity of such bulletin boards shall be by mutual agreement of student leadership representatives and the school administration, and/or Executive Director or designee. Posted material must be in compliance with other sections of this Policy, particularly regarding the distribution of materials and prohibited speech.

Organized Demonstrations

Students have the right to lawful, organized, on-campus demonstrations, subject to the provisions of this Policy and applicable law.

No organized demonstrations by school groups may take place during school hours off the school campus unless sanctioned in advance by School authorities and supervised by a designated School authority. No individual student or group of students may demonstrate in the name of the School or as an official School group at any time unless authorized by the Executive Director or designee to participate in the activity.

Enforcement

1. The Executive Director or designee shall review material submitted in a reasonable amount of time and shall allow the approved material to be distributed according to the time and manner established by this Policy.
2. Any student may appeal the decision of the Executive Director or designee to the Board of Directors, which shall render a decision within a reasonable period of time and at a public meeting after receipt of the appeal. The appeal by the student must be made within five school days from the time the unsatisfactory decision was rendered.
3. Students who are considering actions in the areas covered by this Policy should be informed of the possible consequences of their action under each specific circumstance.
